LLOYD ROOT HAS BEEN NAMED IN TWO MINE SUITS

Loyd L. Root, former state mineralogist and well known in this section is named in two mining suits now pending in Nevada and Siskiyou counties. In the suit filed by the Alcalde company in the local court the past week he is charged with holding stocy in his possession in the New Monte Christo Mining Company, intended to be placed in escrow along with a deed executed by the Alcalde company of certain properties in the Dead Man Flat section. It is chargel that instead of beisg placed in escrow the deed was turned over to the Monte Christo interests by the late George W. Root.

In the Siskiyou county case, Root is said to have been named as receiver of the Buzzard Hill and Independence mines by federal court some time since and suit has been brought by Joseph E. Merriam of Mt. Kisko, New York, to close the receivership and secure possession of the property again. Merriam has been a large investor in California mining properties including the Grizzly Ridge mine at Columbia Hill, but the litigation over the Siskiyou county properties has greaty hampered his operations in both counties. It is to be hoped that he can bring the litigation to a successful conclusion in the near future as it will mean large operations in both counties.

Another chapter promises to be written in Nevada county mining litigation with the filing of a suit by the Alcalde Gold Mining Company to recover possession of its extensive properties in the Dead Mans Flat section from the New Monte Christo Mining Company and a trust company. The court has been asked to restrain the sale of stock, to compel the reconveyance of the property and to quiet title thereto.

The papers filed with County Clerk Coughlan recite that on May 31st, 1927, the plaintiff company was induced to enter into negotiations with the defendant company through its agent, C. C. Julian, of Southern California oil fame, and agreed to deed its property to the New Monte Christo company placing such deel in escrow. The defendant company was to issue stock, it i alleged, to stockholders of the Alcale company in amounts equal to their Alcalde holdings and to assume some $30,000 of indebtedness. The complaint alleges that the defendant company issued the stock and turned it over to Lloyd L. Root who also held the deed from the Alcalle company, but that he still holds the stock and had not deposited it as per agreement. The complaint charges that George W. Root wrongfully delivered the deed to the property to Julian who placed same on record. Although it was said to be represented that the stock of the New Monte Christo company was to become non-assessable, yet an assessment has been levied against it and is now delinquent on the stock reputed held by Root.

SIERRA COUNTY CALLS MEETING FOR MINING

Accorling to published announcement in Downieville, a meeting has been called for 2 o'clock tomorrow Tuesday afternoon in county surveyor Taylor's office to form a Sierra county chapter of the state mining association. The state officers have been planning a large meeting for around November 23d at Downieville to organize the state move. If Sierra county can develop sufficiently large membership and enthusiastic officers to put over a strong link in the state system, her cooperation will be much welcomed.

AIRPORT COMMITTEE TO REPORT TOMORROW NIGHT

Th principal item of business on the calendar for the monthly meeting of the Nevada City Chamber of Commerce tomorrow night will be the consideration of the report from the special airport committee consisting of Fred F. Cassidy, G. J. Rector, and George H. Calanan. It i expected that a report from Inspector Wait of the government survey will be available at that time.

The matter of the establishment of a suitable airport which will meet every requirement of the government for a Class A institution is one of the biggest things for Nevada City tackled by the Chamber and every citizen shoull make it a point to keep potsed on the progress of the movement and make it a real community affair. The fact that Nevada City possesses a suitable site for a Class A port is intensely interesting.

The property of the Numitor Gold Mining Company lying just east of the confluence of Greenhorn creek and the Bear river, has been taken over by the Pacific Gas & Electric Company as a power site under condemnation proceedings and a Placer county jury set $6500 as the proper value to be paid the company stockholders.

Last year the property was taken over under bond by C. D. Lucas of Seattle who spent several thousand dollars in sampling the property and opening up ome of the old workings.

WARREN DICK SELECTED AS CHAMBER SECRETARY

Warren E. Dick with a background of large promotional work has been selected as secretary of the Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce and has entered upon his duties in that capacity the past week. There seems to be a great deal of enthusiasm over his advent into the civic life of Grass Valley and the organization to which he will give his full time looks to be taking on a new lease of active participation in the affairs of Grass Valley and the county. Mr. Dick is bringing his family to the community at once to reside.

GRASS GREENS AT THE GOLF COURSE PROMISE

There is a prospect that the directors of the golf club are going to ge tbusy on some grass greens for the course after much argument pro and con by the players. Grass greens on the local course would put it far ahead of any nearby clubs and with the plentiful supply of water there would not be much difficulty in keeping them up.

Chairman Arthur B. Foote of the greens committee is to be commended on his bringing the matter up for discussion at the meeting of the club directors last week and ponsoring the idea. The sand greens are a constant expense during the winter season and discourage play while grass greens are permanent for fast play the year around. Remembrance of the toursament with Lincoln last spring when the greens were covered with water is not pleasant.

It is to be hoped that one or two of the greens will be planted to grass so that the players may be able to compare them with the present ones.

HOGAN TRAPS BEAR COYOTES LAST WEEK

Francis Hogan. local merchant, last week demonstrated that he is considerable of a trapped as well as an expert fitter of the foot, when he in company with Lee Mason trapped a large bear in the vicinity of the Junction House. Two coyotes also fell prey to Hogan's ability. The skins were on display at the Hogan store and created a great deal of interest.

HISTORY OF GOLD MINING RELATED SCOTT TURNER

Since the discovery of America, world production of gold has only slightly exceeded a billion ounces, approximately 1,003,500,000 ounces being inilcatel by study of available records, says Scott Turner, Director, United States Bureau of Mines, Department of Commerce, in commenting on an economic review of gold production in the period 1493-1927, recently concluded by Robert A. Ridgway and the staff of the Common Metals Division of the Bureau. Scattered proluction of which there is no record would probably add no more than 1 per cent to this estimated total.

More than half of the grand total of gold production for the past 435 years, or 516,273,000 ounces, was produced in the first 27 years of the present century. Of the cumulative world production of gold since -492, 467,000,000 ounces are estimated to exist is the form of monetary stocks, while 536,563,329 ounces represent the balance of gold lost or absorbed in other than monetary uses.

The carcity of gold may be illustrated by the fact that if the entire world production since the discovery of America were cast int a cube its edges would measure only 38.5 feet. It might well be questioned whether this gold, considered merely as a metal characterized by certain properties, could be worth the toil and sacrifice required for its production; but as a basis of exchange greatly facilitating the development of commerce among the peoples of the tarth, its value to civilization exceeds all reckoning, Mr. Turner points out.

In spite of a superficial claim often made that gold does not pay its cost of production, it can hardly be doubted that United States gold production, amounting to more than $4,500,000,000 when reckoned roughly at $20. as ounce, must have been an important factor in assisting the development of other sources of national wealth.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE

On Saturday, November 2, several boys turned out along with Coach Pedersen anl a carpenter and made several improvements on the athletic field. They rebuilt a very substantial backstop and put up poles for vaulting, high jumping, and for the volley ball net. Coach Pedersen hopes this next spring to have the field leveled for track and other outdoor sports.

CANDY SALE

The Honor Society held a candy sale at school during the noon hours, Tuesday, November 5. Various students, not all of whom were members, donated candy, which was sold in ten cent bags. The proceeds were satisfying. This amount is practically clear since there was little overhead expense. This money plus the money raised by the Honor Society luncheon given a few weeks ago completed the scholarship fund for this semester.

WILLIAM PENROSE PASSES

William Penrose, 50, a native of Cornwall, passed away in Reno early last week after an illness of several months. BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

By Lois Eden

Eleven years ago today, Monday, November the eleventh, peace was declared for our country. This day brought great happiness to the soldiers who had fought hard overseas. It also brought great joy to the parents and friends of "our boys" who went out bravely to fight for our country. This day brought sadness to those parents who waited in vain for their sons who never returned.

Today every one of our American Flags should be raised high in the air from sunrise to sunset. In doing this we show the appreciation that our nation has for our beloved flag and for the boys who fought to keep the world safe for democracy.

N. C. H. S. vs. HESSERS

On November 1, the A and B teams scored their first win of the season. Both the Purple and Gold teams have been working out team work and speed. They displayed both these elements in th game with Hesser's Pharmacy. Hogan, the big, blond giant center, is very good this year and was high point man. Captain Pierce has developed much speed and quickness to give any team trouble. Janes, Gleason, Hoskins, and Davey all look well also.

The B team has stars as well. Carl Hieronimous starred in the first B game, sinking twenty some odd points while Macari was runner up. Bill Tamblyn also played a nice game.

Coach Pedersen said if the boys keep up such playing there will be no trouble in winning.

LUNCHEON HELD

On Wednesday noon, November sixth, a luncheon was held at the high sihool by the Girl's Association under the supervision of Miss Thelma Leschinsky. This was somewhat different from those previously held, as it was cafeteria style. Everyone could buy as much as he could eat, providing he had his nickels and dimes. Approximately, twenty-seven dollars were taken in which will go towards athletic equipment for the Girls' Physical Education classes.

CLASS SECRETARY BOOK

Every secretary from the four different classes of the Nevada City High School has been furnished with a record book so that he can keep he recordo f all class meetings and special events of the school for that term .At the end of each term this book will go on file in the principal's office. In this manner a record will be kept of what each class ioes for the four years of high chool.

EDITORIAL

Did you say that it would be nice if the boys would join the "rooting section" at the basketball contests- Yes, I think so too. Of course at the last game the rooting ection which was composed of girls who received many compliments and we will have to admit that the girls put over the yells in first class style. But you know you can always better the best. There are some yells which require the resonant and sonorous bass voices of the boys. Now, boys, don't get the big head. Just get in and do your duty by supporting your teams. Of coruse the boys who play on the various teams are ecxused from this duty, since their part is to play the game and win. For the rest of you boys—your part, as well as the girls, is to sit in the rooting section and give the players your moral support.

Come on, boys, let's have a hundred percent attendance in the rooting section at the next game and every game to follow!

ARMISTICE DAY

By Margaret Rector

November the eleventh is, perhaps one of the happiest and most outstanding of anniversaries in the history of both Europe and America. It was the end of one of the greatest wars in all history. For France and Belgium, it meant freedom from worry and suffering, for Germany, it meant a chance to start over anew for England, it meant that they could again settle down to their commerce, and for the United States it meant that we had repaid a long-owed debt of gratitude, and upheld the honor of our country.

Think of it! Eleven years have flown by, and all the world is at peace again. Each country mourned for her dead and wounded and then went on about her duties, paying debts, and keeping up the trade of their country at the same time. Past wrongs have been forgotten, never to be remembered again.

America, perhaps, suffered the least from the Great War, yet our brave boys, who imperilled their lives for the sake of the honor of our glorious country; deserve even more than praise. Everyone is willing to give them praise, but it seldom goes beyond this. Many of the wounded soldiers lying sick in the hospital are forgotten.

But let's make this year different. Let's show the soldiers that eleven years makes no difference. Let's do more than praise them. Let's help them.

ARMISTICE DAY

Armistice Day was observed Friday afternoon at the High School by a program given before the student body and the faculty. Mr. Pedersen played "Reveille", "Assembly", and "Taps" on the bugle.

Following this the entire assembly stool at attention in commemoration of the soldiers who had given their lives in the war.

Gertrule Marriott read "In Flanders Fields" and Helen McCullough read "America's Reply" by R. W. Lilliard. The program was concluded by a talk by Mr. Wilson on the meaning of Armistice Day.

ARMISTICE DAY

Monday, November the eleventh, Armistice Day, will be a holiday for li the schools.

ARMISTICE VACATIONS

Monday, November 11, is Armisice Day and several of the teachers ook advantage of this fact.

Mrs. Ruth Hulen spent her vacaion with her family in San Franisco, Mr. C. E. Pedersen and Miss Thelma Leschinsky went to Oakand to their repective homes, while Miss Ann Whelan visited friends in Berkeley.

STUDENTS CONTEST

In a contest sponsored by the University of California, students from all parts of the state were invited to present their views on "College,—MY Ambition". Seniors of the high schools of California were eligible to take part. Three essays were selected from each school, and were sent in to be judged by a committee appointed for the purpose.

From Nevada City High School, the essays written by Florence Smart, Katherine Parsons, and Helen McCullough, were selected by a sub committee consisting of Miss Mabel F. Main, of the High School faculty, and John W. O'Neill, local manager of the Daily Morning Union, as having the most merit. These essays have been sent in to the committee of judges, and the result of the contest will be announced very shortly, it is said. To the student awarded the prize there will be given a trip to the University of California for a week's sujourn, free of expense, and a ticket to the Stanford-California football game. The student will also be accorded the privilege of an interview with President Campbell, of the University.

Needless to say, hopes are running high that one of our students may prove to be the lucky winner of the prize.

CERTIFICATE AWARDED

Katheleen Greenway, a post graduate, was awrded a shorthand certificate for writing eighty words a minute for five consequtive minutes last Wednesday, November 6. This award is offered by Gregg, the originator of the Gregg method, which is taught in the majority of the commercial courses.

As Kathelenn is only a second year student this standard is exceptionally good. She took the test for this certificate about six weeks ago and has increased her speed and accuracy since that time. She is now writing an average of ninety words per minute. Her greatest hopes are to reach the hundred mark or above before the annual contest is held. At last year's contest Katheleen took second place and with a whole term's practice and experience we feel that she stands an excellent chance of being champion of Northern California this year.

PLAY CAST

At last the cast for the Birds' Christmas Carol has been selected. Last week about 30 boys and girls who were interested, tried out for the different characters. Mrs. Hulen and Mr. Kjorlie picked the characters and those chosen will constitute the cast, unless they are found insuitable, or cannot, for other reasons, participate.

The members of the cast are as follows:

Carol Bird	Ruth Rector
Mrs. Bird	Grace Towle
Mr. Bird	Milton Masters
Jack Bird	Bill Rector
Elfredia Carol	Madeline Himes
Mrs. Ruggles	Ann Williams
Sara Maud	Katherine Celio
Peter	Bob Tucker
Peoria	Beth Curnow
Kitty	Erline Sutton
Clement	Warren Chapman
Cornelious	Billy Sharp
Larry	Harry Davey

Play practice will start next week and we all feel sure that under the leadership of Mr. Kjorlie and Mrs. Hulen, the play will be successful.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Coach Pedersen announced the basketball schedule and says that there are many good teams coming during the N. C. H. S. basketball season. November 1, the Purple and Gold played Hesser's Pharmacy and made their first victory. November 8, they played the First Christian Church of Sacramento. November 15, Southern Pacific Club comes here to play. November 21, the A's and B's travel ,to Sacramento to play Part Time High School. Then on November 29, they will meet the fast Auburn teams here. On December 13, the boys travel to Folsom to play their A and B teams. December 20, Wheatland High comes here to play. January 10, the Part Time High gives us a return game and January 14, we travel to Wheatland to give them a return game. Still more games are coming in and N. C. H. expects a big year.

TALK GIVEN BY MR DAVIS

On Thursday afternoon, November the seventh, an assembly was held and we all welcomed Dr. Davis to speak to us. Dr. Davis gave a very interesting talk on "Success". In this speech he told us that in setting a foundation for our life work, we should never say, "I can't", but always try to do the best we possibly can. This is the only way to work ourselves up to a high standard. He also brought out another interesting point in his speech about smoking. If one smokes he is not able to think so freely and as clearly as the one who does not smoke. Smoking must be stopped if he wishes to work up to the highest standard.

The students were all very interested in this subject and they also learned some new ways of setting the foundation for life work.

N. C. H. S vs COLTS

Last Tuesday night, November 5, the Nevada City High School A team traveled to Grass Valley to play the Boston Ravine Colts. They proved little competition for the Purple asd Golds although the score was only 18-10. Coach Pedersen took out the regulars to run in the second string men to give them practice and the second men held the Colts to but one goal. The game was good practice for all the players.

PLACER COUNTY BOILS OVER POLITICS AGAIN

Politics are again assuming fever heat down in Placer county again as a result of District Attorney Lowell serving formal demand on Supervisors William Haines and Matt C. Langstaff for moneys said to have been collected by them from the county for supplies and labor furnished while they were members of the board. There is no argument as to whether the county got the service and the goods and the prices but simply the proposition that being public servants they could not do business with the county.

The following from the Roseville Tribune is self explanatory:

District Attorney Orrin J. Lowell has served notice on two members of the Board of Supervisors asking for return of sums alleged to have been received illegally by them, with the addition of a 20 per cent penalty.

Supervisor Haines has been asked to return approximately $4,000 received by him for services render the county in his blacksmith shop. Supervisor Langstaff has been asked to return about $8,000 received by him for dynamite sold to the county and for transportation furnished by the Forest Hill Stage Line, which he owns.

It is reported that the resignation of both supervisors has been aked by the district attorney.

The requests for the return of the money is the preliminary step for legal action by the district attorney inspired by the recent grand jury report alleging sums illegally spent by several members of the Board of Supervisors and by other county officials as well.

Th egrand jury in calling attention to the irregularities, made the comment that money probably had been saved the county because of the irregular practice, and refused to bring any charges against the officials.

In view of the divided attitude in the county, there is much speculation as to whether or not the district will be able to get a verdict ordering return of the money. He has indicated, however, that an appeal will be taken.

Because the irregularities on which the suit is based are long standing, carried on with the knowledge of Lowell and also that of Judge J. B. Landis, who preceded him as district attorney, it is certain that an outside attorney will be called upon to prosecute the case, and also an outside judge to conduct the hearing.

Both the district attorney and Judge Landis would be called upon to testify for the defendants if the cases come to trial it has been predicted.

Political Skies Murky

The case promises to muddy up the county political skies considerably, according to rumors here involving numerous county officials as yet untouched by the recent grand jury report.

Supervisor William Haman of Roseville, although not one of the defendants as yet, was involved in the grand jury report, and it is reported that all of his influence in the southern part of the county will go into the fight.

Reports that political skeletons of years ago will be trotted forth for a new airing have been heard, and it is indicated that few, if any, of those who many venture into the fight will come out unscathed.

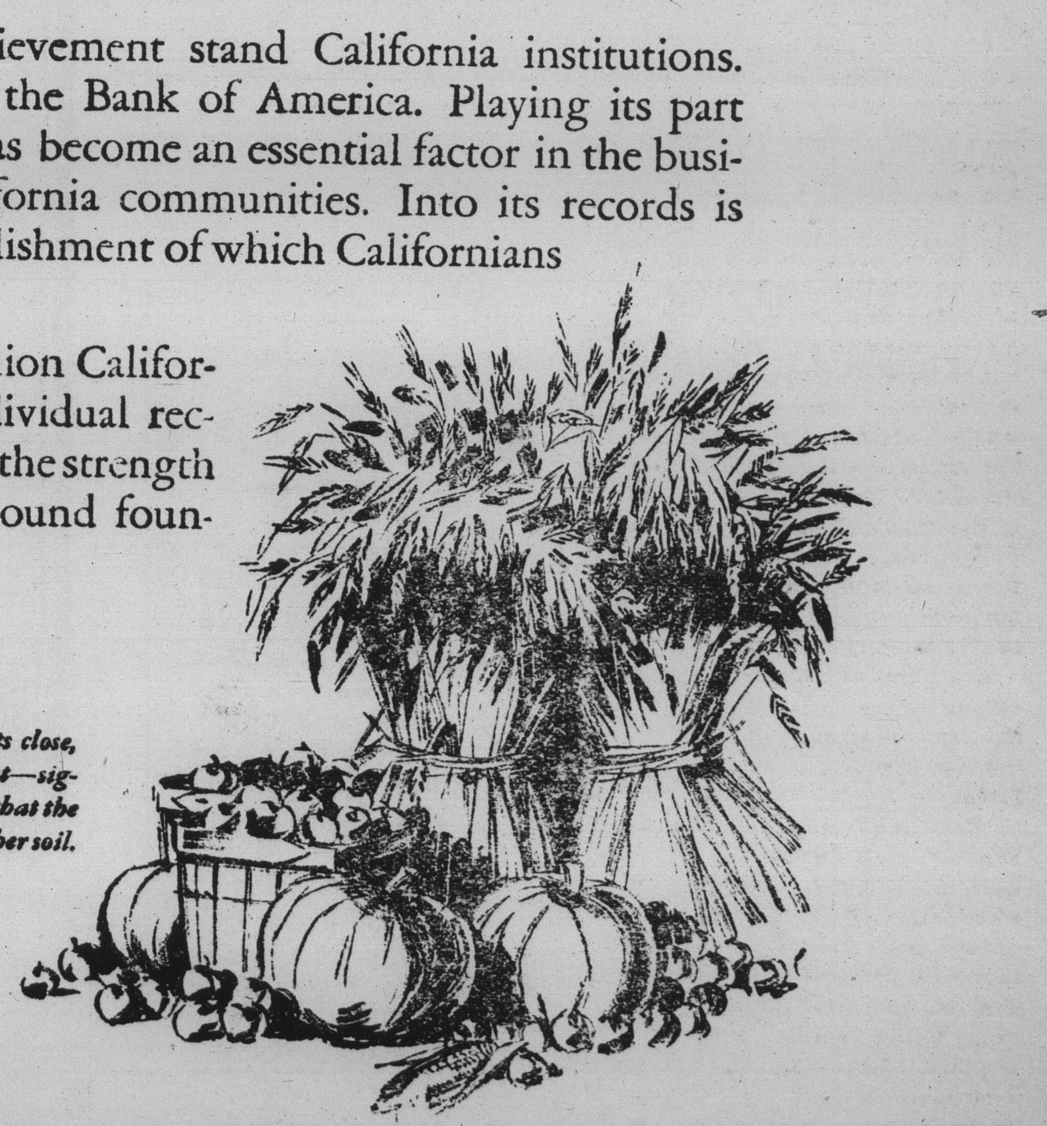
ACCOMPLISHMENT

Just eighty years ago, the Forty-Niners pushed their resolute way into California—the outpost of the Western Frontier. From their wagons they swung plows and axes, and began to cultivate and to build.

Thriving cities, busy harbors, mile after mile of flourishing fields are evidence of California's accomplishment within the span of a lifetime.

Behind this record of achievement stand California institutions. Prominent among them is the Bank of America. Playing its part since early days, this bank has become an essential factor in the business life of a hundred California communities. Into its records is written much of the accomplishment of which Californians are most proud.

Today, more than half a million Californians are building their individual records of accomplishment with the strength of this institution as their sound foundation.



Another year of accomplishment drawing to its close, brings with it the fruits of a bountiful harvest—significant reminder to dweller in town and city that the wealth of California is essentially the wealth of her soil.

BOWLING RETURNS WILL BE CURTAILED NUGGET

Owing to the lack of proper scoring facilities, the service rendered by The Nugget for the past year in giving a complete summary of the marks made by the various players and teams in the Elks tournaments, will have to be curtailed until such time as the committee makes arrangements to supply the press with the information. The departure of statistician George Walling and no one appointed by the committee to fill his place have created a hiatus in the records this week. The only figures at hand are those Wednesday night when the publisher jotted down the results. Nothing is available on Monday night's work.

The lowly Bigelows took the Mobleys into camp Wednesday night to the tune of four points and are now tied with them for total points. The Mobleys slumped somethisg terrific in their pin getting ability and while the Bigelows were not setting the world on fire with high marks, they were getting enough pins to cop the marks and that is all that counts after all in the old alley game. The highest games were rolled by Dave Richards, 172 and156, and Southpaw Hoge laid down one for 155. Mobley's average took an awful ride into the lower regions with only a 125 average for the night's work which will give his average a healthy swat. Hoge's did not suffer so bad. The butcher ran his up a few notches for the occasion.

Doubles—Durbin 2, Hoge.

CAMPTONVILLE JOTTINGS

It is rumored here that some large syndicate has been dickering with the various service stations on the Downieville-Nevada City highway, with object in view of taking them over and consolidating the whole string of them into one system. At present there is a gasoline pump almost as often as the pine trees, and the taking of them over by one concern would make a uniform service on this route.

The work of making the Yuba River Fish Hatchery, 10 miles north of here on the highway, a permanent thing has about been completed wherein the canvas sides and roofs of the main building have been replaced with wooden material The hatchery plant was brought here a year ago from Kern county where it was not a success, and tried out here for a season to ascertain whether or not it would work properly at this location, which test has proven it to be ose of the most satisfactory of their plants in the state.

The continued dry season has brought about several stubborn fires in thi vicinity, omething almost unheard of at this late season of the year. The first one occurred near Canyon Creek several days ago, and burned ferociously for several days, having been put under control by a crew of thirty men. One started on state land, below North San Juan and soon reached Sweetland, but was put under control. A fire was reported Saturday evening at Bullards Bar but porved to be a false alarm.

Considerable activity has been noticed during the past two weeks in the travel for recreational purposes into this section. Fine roads and excellent weather, with a picture setting of autumn scenery and colors which cannot be reproduced is what brings the valley to the mountains to share in part with these splendors of nature.

George H. Shirkey, prominent optician of Grass Valley, and wife, A. A. Archibald, Nevada county mining man, and wife and daughter, and Mr. McNeil all of Grass Valley, were in town Sunday enroute to Bullards Lake on a catfishing trip, and general outing.

H. M. Cooper, Division Manager of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company at Auburn, and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. DeNike, of the same firm all of Auburn, took lunch at the Hotel Francis and spent several hours here enjoying the fall atmosphere.

William O. Grant and Fred J. Joubert motored to Downieville Saturday evening to attend a lodge meeting.

Miss Lesta H. Joubert and Owen Eddy motored to Pike Saturday.

Jake E. Deal left Friday for Nevala City on a few day's visit.

Mr. anl Mrs. Eldred Jones and family who spent the summer at the Oak Valley saw mill left a few days ago for their home in Nevada City.

Miss Florence Humphrey spent the week end visiting friends in town.

Henry C. Katterhorn of Sacramento arrived here a few days ago and began operations of cutting Christmas trees.

Word was received here Saturday of a bad accident which befell C. B. Townsend at Westwood, when a large tree fell upon him. He was an employee in the timber for the Red River Lumber Company when the accident occured, and has been in a serious condition at the Westwood hospial. Townsend is a brother of Mrs. Wm. Lang and Mrs. Levi Turner, of this place, and last year he and his wife resided here, he being employed at the Lang garage.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Lang motored to Brownsville Saturday.

Leonard L. Bishop and Esmond J. Humphrey returned Saturday after a three weeks absence at Forest

NUGGET IS CELEBRATING ITS THIRD BIRTHDAY

(Cozy Corner Chat)

WITH THIS ISSUE, The Nugget completes three years of active service in Nevada City and Nevada County and is preparing to enter its fourth year with renewed vigor in behalf of its community which has shown more than a passing interest in its welfare since first it came into being. There have been some trials and tribulations, of course, strewn along the pathway of its existence but they have been minor ones withal. The happiness that has come from being privileged to live in such a fine community as Nevada City has been wondrous compensation indeed. The friendships made have been most welcome and we trust to make many new ones as the days and years pass into history. It is a hard problem coming into a strange community and casting one's lot. There have been so many of the people here, however, who have been willing to take the newcomers at their face value and lend them every encouragement and assistance that the work of getting our business organized and effectively functioning has made an enjoybale one. The Nugget is proud to have played its part in whatever material prosperity has come to the community in the years it has been serving it as its organ of publicity and it trusts that it may always be found ready to fight the community's battles in as effective way. Publisher Nugget:

At a recent meeting of the" W. S. C." —Welcome Strangers Class—of the Methodist unday school, the question of law enforcement was mentioned in connection with the recent prohibtion enforcement in Nevada county. The thought was brot out that while all good citizens believe in law enforcement, yet many times the fact that good citizens fail to commend the officers when they actually do their duty is one reason why officers do not feel encouraged to lo their best to restrain law breakers.

The Class unanimously voted to commend the Nevada county sheriff and all other officers who have faithfully carried out their sworn obligation of law enfocement.
